2. COURT SESSIONS AND TYPES OF CASE BY SUBJECT MATTER (Criminal, Traffic, Civil and Small Claims).

All correspondence or filings should be filed with the clerk's office in the respective department where the case is assigned or filed. Prior to the end of each calendar year the Court designates and sets dates for the following year. These dates are published and available at the District Clerk's Offices. Additional dates may be added to the calendar as need arises.

Heber Springs Department- The Heber Springs Department maintains two separate dockets that are the Heber Springs Docket and the Cleburne County Docket. Matters that are filed by the Heber Springs Police Department or that are alleged to arise within the incorporated boundaries of the City of Heber Springs are placed on the Heber Springs Docket. All other matters filed are placed on the Cleburne County Docket. It should be noted that the Heber Springs Department Clerk's Office and Court is commonly referred to as, "Cleburne County District Court" as the Clerk's Office is operated by the County. The Clerk's Office and all proceedings are located at the Cleburne County Courts Building, 922 South 9th Street, Heber Springs, Arkansas 72543. All employees are employees of Cleburne County.

Greers Ferry Department-The Greers Ferry Department will exclusively hear matters brought/filed by the Greers Ferry Police Department and any other criminal, traffic or violation filed in the department. The Greers Ferry Department Clerk's Office and proceedings are held at the Greers Ferry City Hall located at 8739 Edgemont Road, Greers Ferry, Arkansas 72067.

Concord Department-The Concord Department will exclusively hear matters brought/filed by the Concord Police Department and any other criminal, traffic or violation filed in the department. The Concord Department Clerk's Office is at Concord City Hall located at 75 Central Avenue Concord, Arkansas 72523. Court proceedings are normally held at the Concord Community Center located at 10424 Heber Springs Road North, Concord, Arkansas 72523. In the event Concord Community Center is not available, proceedings are held at Concord City Hall.

Quitman Department-The Quitman Department will exclusively hear matters brought/filed by the Quitman Police Department and any other criminal, traffic or violation filed in the department. The Quitman Department Clerk's Office and proceedings are held at Quitman City Hall located at #5 2nd Street, Quitman, Arkansas 72131.

Mountain View Department-The Mountain View Department will hear all matters brought/filed in Stone County. The Mountain View Department maintains two separate dockets that are the Mountain View Docket and the Stone County Docket. Matters that are filed by the Mountain View Police Department or that are alleged to arise within the incorporated boundaries of the City of Mountain View are placed on the Mountain View Docket. All other matters filed are placed on the Stone County Docket. It should be noted that the Mountain View Department Clerk's Office and Court is commonly referred to as, "Stone County District Court" as the Clerk's Office is operated by the County. The Clerk's Office and most proceedings are located at the Stone County Court Complex, 211 Blanchard Street, Mountain View, Arkansas 72560. There may be times when Court proceedings are held at other locations due to Circuit Court using the Courtroom. All clerks are employees of Stone County.

Review Dockets- In an effort to assist individuals in meeting their court obligations, special review dockets are held monthly in each department. Defendants may be placed on these dockets who are appearing back before the Court for non-compliance issues.

Matters brought/filed by the Arkansas State Police and Arkansas Game and Fish or any other state agency not specially mentioned above may be filed in any Department within the County were the violation/action occurred.
