(d)(1) For purposes of this section, the court shall not specify a particular provider for placement or family services when the department is the payor or provider.

(2)(A) The court may order a child to remain in a placement if the court finds the placement is in the best interest of the child after hearing evidence from all parties.

(B) A court may also order a child to be placed into a licensed or approved placement after a hearing in which the court makes a finding that it is in the best interest of the child based on bona fide consideration of evidence and recommendations from all the parties.

(e)(1) In all cases in which family services are ordered, the court shall determine a parent's, guardian's, or custodian's ability to pay, in whole or in part, for these family services.

(2) The determination under subdivision (e)(1) of this section and the evidence supporting the determination shall be made in writing in the order ordering family services.

(C) Any other factors the court deems relevant.

(f) Custody of a juvenile may be transferred to a relative or other individual only after a home study of the placement is conducted by the department or a licensed social worker who is approved to do home studies and submitted to the court in writing and the court determines that the placement is in the best interest of the juvenile.

(g) Custody of a juvenile shall not be transferred to the department if a delinquency petition or case is converted to a family in need of services petition or case.

(h) A court shall not commit a juvenile found solely in criminal contempt to the Division of Youth Services.

(C)(i) A juvenile held under this subdivision (1) shall be separated from detained juveniles charged or held for delinquency.

(ii) A juvenile shall not be held under this subdivision (1) for more than six (6) hours if the parent, guardian, or other person contacted lives in the state or twenty-four (24) hours, excluding weekends and holidays, if the parent, guardian, or other person contacted lives out of state; and

(2)(A) An adjudicated-family-in-need-of-services juvenile may be held in a juvenile detention facility when the court finds that the juvenile violated a valid court order.

(B)(i) For the purposes of this subdivision (2), a valid court order shall include any order of a circuit court regarding a juvenile who has been brought before the court and made subject to a court order.

(ii) The juvenile who is the subject of the order is entitled to full due process rights.

9-35-215. Six-month reviews required.

(a)(1) The court shall review every case of family in need of services when:

(A) A juvenile is placed by the court in the custody of the Department of Human Services or in another out-of-home placement until there is a permanent order of custody, guardianship, or other permanent placement for the juvenile; or

(B) A juvenile is returned to the parent from whom the juvenile was removed, another fit parent, guardian, or custodian and the court has not discontinued orders for family services.

(2)(A) The first six-month review shall be held no later than six (6) months from the date of the original out-of-home placement of the juvenile and shall be scheduled by the court following the adjudication and disposition hearing.

(B) It shall be reviewed every six (6) months thereafter until permanency is achieved.

(3) A six-month review hearing shall not be required for a juvenile who:

(A) Is over eighteen (18) years of age; and

(B) Has elected to remain in extended foster care or to return to extended foster care under § 9-35-302.

(b) The court may require the cases under this section to be reviewed before the sixth-month review hearing, and the court shall announce the date, time, and place of the hearing.

(c) At any time during the pendency of any case of dependency-neglect or family in need of services in which an out-of-home placement has occurred, any party may request the court to review the case, and the party requesting the hearing shall provide reasonable notice to all parties.

(d) At any time during the course of a case, the department, the attorney ad litem, or the court can request a hearing on whether or not reunification services should be terminated under § 9-35-335.

(e)(1) In each case in which a juvenile has been placed in an out-of-home placement, the court shall conduct a hearing to review the case sufficiently to determine the future status of the juvenile based upon the best interest of the juvenile.

(2)(A) The court shall determine and include in its orders the following:

- (i) Whether the case plan, services, and placement meet the special needs and best interest of the juvenile with the juvenile's health, safety, and educational needs specifically addressed;
- (ii) Whether the state has made reasonable efforts to provide family services;
- (iii) Whether the parent or parents or person from whom custody was removed has demonstrated progress toward the goals of the case plan and whether completion of the goals has benefited the parent in remedying the issues that prevent the safe return of the juvenile;
- (iv) Whether the case plan is moving toward an appropriate permanency plan under § 9-35-324 for the juvenile;
- (v) Whether the visitation plan is appropriate for the juvenile, the parent or parents, and any siblings, if separated; and
- (vi)(a) Whether the juvenile should be returned to his or her parent or parents and whether or not the juvenile's health and safety can be protected by his or her parent or parents if returned home, either permanently or for a trial placement.
  - (b) At any time the court determines that the health and safety of the juvenile can be adequately protected and it is in the best interest of the juvenile, the court shall return the juvenile to a parent or parents from whom custody was removed.

(B)(i) The court may order any study, evaluation, or post-disposition report, if needed.

- (ii) All studies, evaluations, or post-disposition reports shall be provided in writing to all parties and counsel at least two (2) days before the review hearing.
- (iii) All parties shall be given a fair opportunity to controvert any part of a study, evaluation, or post-disposition report.

(3)(A) In making its findings, the court shall consider the following:

- (i) The extent of compliance with the case plan, including without limitation a review of the department's care for the health, safety, and education of the juvenile while he or she has been in an out-of-home placement;
- (ii) The extent of progress that has been made toward alleviating or mitigating the causes of the out-of-home placement;
- (iii) Whether the juvenile should be returned to his or her parent or parents and whether or not the juvenile's health and safety can be protected by his or her parent or parents if returned home; and
- (iv) An appropriate permanency plan under § 9-35-324 for the juvenile, including concurrent planning.

(B) Incompletion of the case plan under subdivision (e)(3)(A)(i) of this section is an insufficient reason by itself to deny the juvenile's return to the family home.

(f) Each six-month review hearing shall be completed, and the written order under subsection (e) of this section shall be filed by the court or by a party or a party's attorney as designated by the court and distributed to the parties within thirty (30) days of the date of the hearing or before the next hearing, whichever is sooner.

9-35-216. Proceedings concerning juveniles for whom paternity not established.

(a) Absent an order of a circuit court or another court of competent jurisdiction to the contrary, the biological mother, whether adult or minor, of a juvenile for whom paternity has not been established is:

- (1) Deemed to be the natural guardian of that juvenile; and
- (2) Is entitled to the care, custody, and control of that juvenile.

(b) The biological mother, the putative father, the juvenile himself or herself, or the Office of Child Support Enforcement may bring an action to establish paternity or support of a juvenile for whom paternity has not been established.

(c)(1) If the juvenile is not born when the parties appear before the court, the court may hear evidence and issue temporary orders and findings pending the birth of the juvenile.

(2) If the final order is contrary to the temporary one, the court shall render judgment for the amount paid under the temporary order against the petitioner if the petitioner was the biological mother.

(3) If the mother dies before the final order, the action may be revived in the name of the juvenile, and the mother's testimony at the temporary hearing may be introduced in the final hearing.

(d)(1) Upon an adjudication by the court that the putative father is the father of the juvenile, the court shall follow the same guidelines, procedures, and requirements as established by the laws of this state applicable to child support orders and judgments entered upon divorce.

(2) The court may award court costs and attorney's fees.

(e)(1) If paternity has been established in a court of competent jurisdiction, a father may petition the court in the county where the juvenile resides for custody of the juvenile.

(2) The court may award custody to a father who has had paternity established if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that:

- (A) He is a fit parent to raise the juvenile;
- (B) He has assumed his responsibilities toward the juvenile by providing care, supervision, protection, and financial support for the juvenile; and
- (C) It is in the best interest of the juvenile to award custody to the father.

(f) At the request of either party in a paternity action, the trial court shall direct that the putative father, biological mother, and juvenile submit to one (1) or more blood tests or other scientific examinations or tests, including deoxyribonucleic acid typing, to:

- (1) Determine whether or not the putative father can be excluded as being the father of the juvenile; and
- (2) Establish the probability of paternity if the test does not exclude the putative father.

(g) The tests under subsection (f) of this section shall be made by a duly qualified physician or physicians, or by another duly qualified person or persons, not to exceed three (3), to be appointed by the court.

(h)(1) The results of the tests under subsection (f) of this section shall be receivable in evidence.

(2)(A)(i) A written report of the test results by the duly qualified expert performing the test, or by a duly qualified expert under whose supervision and direction the test and analysis have been performed, certified by an affidavit duly subscribed and sworn to by the expert before a notary public, may be introduced in evidence in illegitimacy actions without calling the expert as a witness.

(ii) If either party desires to question the expert, the party shall have the expert subpoenaed within a reasonable time before trial.

(B) If the results of the paternity tests establish a ninety-five percent (95%) or more probability of inclusion that the putative father is the biological father of the juvenile and after corroborating testimony of the mother in regard to access during the probable period of conception, this shall constitute a prima facie case of establishment of paternity and the burden of proof shall shift to the putative father to rebut such proof.

(3) The experts shall be subject to cross-examination by both parties after the court has caused them to disclose their findings.

(i) Whenever the court orders the blood tests to be taken and one (1) of the parties refuses to submit to the test, that fact shall be disclosed upon the trial unless good cause is shown to the contrary.

(j) The costs of the test and witness fees shall be taxed by the court as other costs in the case.

(k) Whenever it shall be relevant to the prosecution or the defense in a paternity action, blood tests that exclude third parties as the father of the juvenile shall be the same as set out in subsections (f) and (g) of this section.

(l) The refusal of a party to submit to a genetic or other ordered test is admissible at a hearing to determine paternity only as to the credibility of the party.

(m) If a male witness offers testimony indicating that his act of intercourse with the mother may have resulted in the conception of the juvenile, the court may require the witness to submit to genetic or other tests to determine whether he is the juvenile's father.

9-35-217. Appeals.

  - (f)(1) A person granted custody, guardianship, or adoption of any juvenile in a proceeding under or arising out of a dependency-neglect action under this subchapter shall ensure that the juvenile is not returned to the care or supervision of any person from whom the child was removed or any person the court has specifically ordered not to have care, supervision, or custody of the juvenile.
    - (2) This section shall not be construed to prohibit these placements if the person who has been granted custody, guardianship, or adoption obtains a court order to that effect from the juvenile division of circuit court that made the award of custody, guardianship, or adoption.
    - (3) Failure to comply with subdivision (f)(1) of this section is punishable as a criminal offense under § 5-26-502(a)(3).
  - (g)(1) The court shall not split custody.
    - (2) As used in this section, "split custody" means granting legal custody to one (1) person or agency and physical custody to another person or agency.

9-35-219. Court costs, fees, and fines.

9-35-301. Purposes — Construction.

This subchapter shall be liberally construed to the end that its purposes may be carried out to:

(1) Assure that all juveniles brought to the attention of the courts receive the guidance, care, and control, preferably in each juvenile's own home when the juvenile's health and safety are not at risk, that will best serve the emotional, mental, and physical welfare of the juvenile and the best interest of the state;

(2)(A) Preserve and strengthen the juvenile's family ties when it is in the best interest of the juvenile;

(B) Protect a juvenile by considering the juvenile's health and safety as the paramount concerns in determining whether or not to remove the juvenile from the custody of his or her parents or custodians, removing the juvenile only when the safety and protection of the public cannot adequately be safeguarded without such removal;

(C) When a juvenile is removed from his or her own family, secure for him or her custody, care, and discipline with primary emphasis on ensuring the health and safety of the juvenile while in the out-of-home placement; and

(D) Assure, in all cases in which a juvenile must be permanently removed from the custody of his or her parents, that the juvenile be placed in an approved family home and be made a member of the family by adoption; and

(3) Provide means through which the provisions of this subchapter are executed and enforced and in which the parties are assured a fair hearing and their constitutional and other legal rights recognized and enforced.

9-35-302. Jurisdiction.

(a)(1) The circuit court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of and shall be the sole court for the following proceedings governed by this subchapter, including without limitation:

(A) Proceedings in which a juvenile is alleged to be dependent or dependent-neglected from birth to eighteen (18) years of age, except for the following:

(i)(a) A juvenile who has been adjudicated dependent or dependent-neglected before eighteen (18) years of age may request the court to continue jurisdiction over the juvenile until twenty-one (21) years of age so long as the juvenile is:

(1) Completing secondary education or a program leading to an equivalent credential;

(2) Enrolled in an institution providing postsecondary or vocational education;

(3) Participating in a program or activity designed to promote or remove barriers to employment;

(4) Employed for at least eighty (80) hours per month; or

(5) Incapable of completing school or work requirements due to a documented medical condition.

(b) The court shall retain jurisdiction only if the juvenile meets the requirements of subdivision (a)(1)(A)(i)(a) of this section or has a viable plan to meet the requirements.

(c) The court shall discontinue jurisdiction only after a hearing to determine whether:

(1) The juvenile:

(A) Knowingly and voluntarily is requesting to leave care;

(B) Has failed to meet the requirements of subdivision (a)(1)(A)(i)(a) of this section; or

(C) Does not have a viable plan to meet the requirements; and

(2) The Department of Human Services has fully complied with § 9-28-114 or § 9-35-334; or files a petition for dependency-neglect concerning that juvenile, before or subsequent to the other legal proceeding, a party to that petition may file a motion to transfer any other legal proceeding concerning the juvenile to the court hearing the dependency-neglect petition.

(B) Upon the filing of a motion, the other legal proceeding shall be transferred to the court hearing the dependency-neglect case.

- (d)(1) The court shall set the time and date of the adjudication hearing at the probable cause hearing.

- (2) After review by the court of an affidavit of financial means completed and verified by the parent of the juvenile and a determination by the court that the parent or juvenile has the ability to pay, the court may order financially able juveniles, parents, guardians, or custodians to pay all or part of reasonable attorney's fees and expenses for representation of a juvenile.

(B) Monitor the case to which he or she is assigned to ensure compliance with the court's orders.

(4) Upon presentation of an order of appointment, a court-appointed special advocate shall be provided access to all records relevant to the juvenile's case, including without limitation:

(2) A determination that the noncustodial parent has demonstrated a significant custodial relationship with the juvenile shall be made at the first appearance of the noncustodial parent in the matter; or

(b)(1) Putative parent if the putative parent has demonstrated significant contact with the juvenile and the court finds the rights of the putative parent have attached.

(2) A determination on whether the rights of the putative parent have attached shall be made at the first appearance of the putative parent in the matter.

(3) Counsel shall not be appointed to a putative parent if the:

(A) Court finds that the putative parent has not demonstrated significant contact with the juvenile;

(B) Court finds that the rights of the putative parent have not attached; or

(C) The putative parent does not appear in the matter.

(4) If a putative parent fails to demonstrate significant contacts with the juvenile, the court shall inform the putative parent on the following:

(A) How to be considered a parent under this chapter;

(B) The eligibility requirements for being appointed counsel; and

(C) The process for requesting the appointment of counsel if the putative parent meets the eligibility requirements for being appointed counsel.

(C) Counsel shall not be appointed to a party in a dependency-neglect proceeding unless:

(D)(i) Parents, putative parents, and custodians shall be advised in the dependency-neglect petition or the ex parte emergency order, whichever is sooner, and at the first appearance before the court, of the right to counsel and the right to appointed counsel, if eligible.

(2) If at the permanency planning hearing or at any time the court establishes the goal of adoption and counsel has not yet been appointed for a parent, the court shall appoint counsel to represent the parent as provided by subdivision (e)(1)(E) of this section.

(3)(A) Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, putative parents do not have a right to appointed counsel in dependency-neglect proceedings.

(B) A putative parent may be appointed counsel for a termination of parental rights proceeding if the court finds the following on the record:

- (i) The putative parent is indigent;
- (ii) The putative parent has established significant contacts with the juvenile so that putative rights attach;
- (iii) Due process requires appointment of counsel for a full and fair hearing for the putative parent in the termination hearing; and
- (iv) The putative parent requested counsel.

(4)(A) A putative parent has the burden to prove paternity and significant contacts with the child.

(B) The court shall make the findings required in subdivision (e)(3) of this section to determine whether a putative parent is entitled to appointed counsel at the termination hearing.

(C)(i) The termination petition shall include the putative parent as provided under § 9-35-306(c)(2)(C).

(ii) The court shall appoint counsel subject to subdivision (e)(3) of this section for the putative parent at any time the court establishes adoption as the case goal with a termination of parental rights petition to be filed.

(5)(A) The court shall order financially able parents or custodians to pay all or part of reasonable attorney's fees and expenses for court-appointed representation after review by the court of an affidavit of financial means completed and verified by the parent or custodian and a determination by the court of an ability to pay.

(B)(i) All moneys collected by the clerk under this subsection shall be retained by the clerk and deposited into a special fund to be known as the "Juvenile Court Representation Fund".

(ii) The court may direct that money from the fund be used in providing counsel for indigent parents or custodians at the trial level in a dependency-neglect proceeding.

(iii) Upon a determination of indigency and a finding by the court that the fund does not have sufficient funds to pay reasonable attorney's fees and expenses incurred at the trial court level and state funds have been exhausted, the court may order the county to pay these reasonable fees and expenses until the state provides funding for counsel.

(6)(A) Appointment of counsel shall be made at a time sufficiently in advance of the court appearance to allow adequate preparation by appointed counsel and adequate consultation between the appointed counsel and the client.

(B)(i) When the first appearance before the court is a probable cause hearing to remove custody under § 9-35-310, parents shall be appointed a parent counsel in a timely manner for meaningful representation until eligibility for appointed counsel is determined by the court under subdivision (e)(1)(B) of this section.

(ii) If in the interest of time or availability of qualified parent counsel it becomes necessary for a provisional parent counsel or counsel other than the parent counsel originally appointed under subdivision (e)(1)(B) of this section, a substitute parent counsel shall be appointed.

(7) The attorney for the parent or custodian shall be provided access to all records relevant to the juvenile's case, including without limitation school records, medical records, all court records relating to the juvenile and his or her family, and department records relating to the juvenile and his or her family, including those maintained electronically and in the Children's Reporting and Information System, to which the parent or custodian is entitled under state and federal law.

(8)(A) In all cases where a court has determined that appointed counsel for an indigent parent or custodian is necessary under this subsection, the court shall appoint counsel in compliance with federal law and Supreme Court Administrative Order No. 15.

(B) When a court orders payment of funds for parent counsel on behalf of an indigent parent or custodian from a state contract, the court shall make written findings in the appointment order in compliance with this section.

9-35-312. Hearings — Generally.

(a)(1) The defendant need not file a written responsive pleading in order to be heard by the court.

(2) If not appointed by the court in an order provided to all parties, counsel shall file a notice of appearance immediately upon acceptance of representation, with a copy to be served on the petitioner and all parties.

(b) At the time set for hearing, the court may:

(1) Proceed to hear the case only if the juvenile is present or excused for good cause by the court; or

(2) Continue the case upon determination that the presence of an adult defendant is necessary.

(c)(1) Hearings under this subchapter shall be in a court of record.

(d)(1) Unless otherwise indicated, the Arkansas Rules of Evidence shall apply.

(2)(A) Upon motion of any party, the court may order that the father, mother, and child submit to scientific testing for drug or alcohol abuse.

(B) A written report of the test results prepared by the person conducting the test, or by a person under whose supervision or direction the test and analysis have been performed, certified by an affidavit subscribed and sworn to by him or her before a notary public, may be introduced in evidence without calling the person as a witness unless a motion challenging the test procedures or results has been filed within thirty (30) days before the hearing and bond is posted in an amount sufficient to cover the costs of the person's appearance to testify.

(C)(i) If contested, documentation of the chain of custody of samples taken from a test subject shall be verified by affidavit of one (1) person's witnessing the procedure or extraction, packaging, and mailing of the sample and by one (1) person's signing for the sample at the place where the sample is subject to the testing procedure.

(ii) Submission of the affidavits along with the submission of the test results shall be competent evidence to establish the chain of custody of those specimens.

(D) When a court orders scientific testing for drug or alcohol abuse and one (1) of the parties refuses to submit to the testing, that refusal shall be disclosed at trial and may be considered civil contempt of court.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in this subchapter, the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply to all proceedings.

(f) All parties shall have the right to compel attendance of witnesses in accordance with the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(g)(1) The petitioner in all proceedings shall bear the burden of presenting the case at hearings.

(2)(A) The following burdens of proof shall apply:

(i) Proof by a preponderance of the evidence in dependency-neglect proceedings, except if subject to the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, 25 U.S.C. § 1901 et seq., as it existed on January 1, 2025; and

(ii) Proof by clear and convincing evidence for hearings to terminate parental rights, except if subject to the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, 25 U.S.C. § 1901 et seq., as it existed on January 1, 2025, and in hearings to determine whether or not reunification services shall be provided.

(a) Best interest of the child; or

(b) Court's authority under the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure or the Arkansas Rules of Evidence.

(ii) Except as otherwise provided by law, a member of the General Assembly who attends a hearing in accordance with subdivision (h)(1)(B)(i) of this section shall not disclose information obtained during his or her attendance at the hearing.

(C)(i)(a) A Child Welfare Ombudsman may attend a hearing held under this subchapter, including without limitation a closed hearing.

(b) However, a court may exclude the Child Welfare Ombudsman from a hearing if:

- (1) It is in the best interest of the child; or
- (2) The reason for the exclusion is based on the authority of the court under the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure or the Arkansas Rules of Evidence.

(ii) Unless otherwise allowed by law, the Child Welfare Ombudsman shall not disclose information that he or she obtains through his or her attendance at a hearing held under this subchapter.

(D)(i) A relative, fictive kin, or individual with a connection to the family involved in a dependency-neglect proceeding may attend a hearing unless the court determines:

(a) The best interest of the child requires the relative, fictive kin, or individual with a connection to the family involved in the dependency-neglect proceeding to be excluded from the hearing; or

(b) It is within the authority of the court under the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure or the Arkansas Rules of Evidence to exclude the relative, fictive kin, or individual with a connection to the family involved in the dependency-neglect proceeding from the hearing.

(ii) The court shall confirm the identity of each relative, fictive kin, or individual with a connection to the family involved in the dependency-neglect proceeding to determine if the relative, fictive kin, or individual with a connection to the family involved in the dependency-neglect proceeding should be excluded from the hearing.

(iii) A relative, fictive kin, or individual with a connection to the family involved in the dependency-neglect proceeding who is permitted to attend a hearing shall not disclose any information obtained during the hearing.

(E)(i) The court may allow an individual with an interest in attending a closed hearing in a dependency-neglect proceeding to attend the hearing if:

(a) It is in the best interest of the child; and

(b) The individual demonstrates a sincere and legitimate need to attend the hearing as determined by the court.

(ii) An individual who attends a hearing in accordance with subdivision (h)(1)(E)(i) of this section shall not disclose any information obtained during the hearing.

(F) An individual who discloses information in violation of subdivision (h)(1)(D)(iii) and subdivision (h)(1)(E)(ii) of this section is guilty of a Class C misdemeanor.

(2) All other hearings may be closed within the discretion of the court, except that in adoption cases the hearings shall be closed as provided in the Revised Uniform Adoption Act, § 9-9-201 et seq.

(i)(1) A court shall set a hearing to address the entry of a written order if:

(A) The written order is not provided to the court for entry within the time specified under this subchapter; and

(B) A party files a motion for a hearing to address the entry of the written order.

(2)(A) The court shall conduct a hearing to address the entry of the written order within thirty (30) days from the date on which the motion for a hearing to address the entry of the written order is filed.

(B) A hearing to address the entry of a written order may be the next scheduled hearing in the proceeding if the hearing to address the entry of the written order is being held within thirty (30) days from the date on which the motion for a hearing to address the entry of the written order is filed.

(C) The court is not required to conduct a hearing to address the entry of a written order if the written order is submitted to the court.

(3) The court shall reassign the preparation of the written order as needed.

9-35-313. Notice to nonparties.

(a)(1) If a proceeding is scheduled regarding a juvenile in the custody of the Department of Human Services and the juvenile has one (1) or more foster parents or preadoptive parents, the department shall provide notice to each of the juvenile's foster parents or preadoptive parents.

(2) The original petitioner in a juvenile case shall provide notice of a proceeding regarding a juvenile in the custody of the department to a relative caregiver of the juvenile.

(b)(1) The court shall allow a foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caregiver an opportunity to be heard in any proceeding held regarding a juvenile in the care of the foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caregiver.

(2) However, a foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caregiver may only be heard under subdivision (b)(1) of this section in the capacity of a witness.

(c)(1) A foster parent, preadoptive parent, or a relative caregiver shall not be made a party to a proceeding:

(A) Solely on the basis that he or she is entitled to notice and the opportunity to be heard; or

(B) If reunification remains the goal of the case.

(2) A foster parent, adoptive parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caregiver may not offer evidence to the court unless he or she is called as a witness.

(d)(1) A grandparent shall be entitled to notice and shall be granted an opportunity to be heard in any dependency-neglect proceeding involving a grandchild who is twelve (12) months of age or younger when:

(A) The grandchild resides with the grandparent for at least six (6) continuous months before the grandchild reached twelve (12) months of age;

(B) The grandparent was the primary caregiver for and financial supporter of the grandchild during the time the grandchild resided with the grandparent; and

(C) The continuous custody under subdivision (d)(1)(A) of this section occurred within one (1) year of the date that the child custody proceeding was initiated.

(2) A grandparent shall be entitled to notice and shall be granted an opportunity to be heard in any dependency-neglect proceeding involving a grandchild who is twelve (12) months of age or older when:

(A) The grandchild resides with this grandparent for at least one (1) continuous year, regardless of the grandchild's age;

(B) The grandparent was the primary caregiver for and financial supporter of the grandchild during the time the grandchild resided with the grandparent; and

(C) The continuous custody under subdivision (d)(2)(A) occurred within one (1) year of the date that the child custody proceeding was initiated.

(3) As used in this subsection, "grandparent" does not mean a parent of a putative father of a juvenile.

9-35-314. Putative parents.

(a)(1) The Department of Human Services shall make diligent efforts to identify putative parents in a dependency-neglect proceeding, including without limitation checking the Putative Father Registry.

(b)(1)(A) If the petitioner has named and served a putative parent under this section and § 9-35-306, the court shall resolve the:

(i) Party status of a putative parent; and

(ii) Rights of the putative parent as a putative father, if the putative father's rights have attached.

(B) A court may consider the termination of the rights of a putative parent under § 9-35-325 if the:

(i) Court finds that the putative parent has established significant contacts; and

(ii) Rights of the putative parent as a putative father have attached.

(2) The court shall provide a putative parent the opportunity to be heard regarding his or her:

(A) Efforts to establish paternity; and

(B) Significant contacts with the juvenile involved in the dependency-neglect proceedings.

(3)(A) The court may order deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) testing at any time.

(B) A court may establish paternity or determine whether a putative parent is a parent as defined under § 9-35-102 regardless of whether a deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) test was ordered or performed.

(C) If there is more than one (1) putative parent of the juvenile, the court shall order a deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) test of each identified putative parent to determine the biological parent of the juvenile.

(D) A deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) test establishing a putative parent as the biological parent of a juvenile is sufficient evidence for the court to:

(i) Adjudicate paternity;

(ii) Establish that the putative parent is a parent for the purposes of this subchapter; and

(iii) Enter a decree of paternity.

(4) A putative parent has the burden to prove paternity and significant contacts with the juvenile.

(c)(1) Except as provided under § 9-35-306, a putative parent shall be named as a party if the circuit court:

(A)(i) Has determined that the putative parent has established paternity; and

(ii) Enters an order establishing the putative parent as a parent for the purposes of this subchapter and directing that the parent be added to the case as a party defendant; or

(B)(i) Has determined that the putative parent has established significant contacts with the juvenile; and

(ii) Enters an order finding that the rights of the putative parent have attached and directing that the parent shall be added to the case as a party defendant.

(2)(A) If the petitioner has named and served a putative parent under this section and § 9-35-306 and the circuit court finds that the putative parent has established paternity, the court shall:

(i) Enter an order establishing the putative parent as a parent for the purposes of this subchapter; and

(ii) Maintain the parent as a party defendant.

(B) If the petitioner has named and served a putative parent under this section and § 9-35-306 and the circuit court finds that the putative parent has established significant contacts with the juvenile, the court shall:

(i) Enter an order stating that the rights of the putative parent have attached; and

(ii) Maintain the putative parent as a party defendant.

(3) If the circuit court finds that the putative parent, after being given notice and opportunity to be heard, has not established paternity or significant contacts with the juvenile, the circuit court shall:

(A) Find that the:

(i) Putative parent is not a parent for the purposes of this subchapter; and

(ii) Rights of the putative parent have not attached; and

(B) Dismiss the putative parent from the case and enter an order finding that no further notice, including without limitation notice of an adoption petition concerning the juvenile, is required to be provided to the putative parent.

(d) The rights of a putative parent to appointed counsel are subject to § 9-35-311.

9-35-315. Family time.

(a)(1) Unsupervised family time may occur between a juvenile and a parent if:

(A) The court determines that the health and safety of the juvenile can be adequately protected; and

(B) It is in the best interest of the child.

(2) Unless the court has restricted unsupervised family time, the Department of Human Services may allow unsupervised family time between a juvenile and a parent at any time.

(b)(1) The petitioner has the burden of proving at every hearing that unsupervised family time is not in the best interest of a child.

(2) If the court determines that unsupervised family time between a juvenile and a parent is not in the best interest of the child, family time between the juvenile and the parent shall be supervised.

(c)(1) A rebuttable presumption that unsupervised family time is in the best interest of the juvenile applies at every hearing.

(2) The burden of proof to rebut the presumption in subdivision (c)(1) of this section is proof by a preponderance of the evidence.

(d) The court may consider the preferences of the juvenile regarding family time if the juvenile is of a sufficient age and capacity to reason, regardless of the juvenile's chronological age.

(e)(1) If the court orders supervised family time, the parent from whom custody of the juvenile has been removed shall receive a minimum of four (4) hours of supervised family time per week.

(2) The court may order less than four (4) hours of supervised family time if the court determines that the supervised family time:

(A) Is not in the best interest of the juvenile; or

(B) Will impose an extreme hardship on one (1) of the parties.

(f)(1) A parent testing positive for a drug on a drug test is an insufficient reason to deny the parent family time with the juvenile if the court has ordered family time between the parent and a juvenile.

(2) Family time that was ordered by the court may be canceled if, at the time that family time between the parent and a juvenile occurs, the parent:

(A) Is under the influence of drugs or alcohol;

(B) Exhibits behavior that may create an unsafe environment for a juvenile; or

(C) Appears to be actively impaired.

(g) A relative or fictive kin may transport a juvenile to and from family time with a parent if:

(1) It is in the best interest of a child;

(2) The relative or fictive kin submits to a:

(A) Background check; and

(B) Child maltreatment registry check; and

(3) The relative or fictive kin meets the driving requirements established by the department.

9-35-316. Adjudication hearing.

(a)(1)(A) An adjudication hearing shall be held to determine whether the allegations in a petition are substantiated by the proof.

(B)(i) If the court finds that the juvenile is dependent-neglected, the court shall determine whether a noncustodial parent contributed to the dependency-neglect and whether the noncustodial parent is a fit parent for purposes of custody or family time.

(ii) A noncustodial parent in subdivision (a)(1)(B)(i) of this section is presumed to be a fit parent.

(iii)(a) If no earlier court order has been entered into evidence concerning custody or family time with the noncustodial parent of the juvenile subject to the dependency-neglect petition, the petitioner shall, and any party may, provide evidence to the court whether the noncustodial parent is unfit for purposes of custody or family time.

(b) The petitioner shall provide evidence as to whether the noncustodial parent contributed to the dependency-neglect.

(iv)(a) The court may transfer temporary custody or permanent custody to the noncustodial parent after a review of evidence and a finding that it is in the best interest of the juvenile to transfer custody, or the court may order family time with the noncustodial parent.

(b) An order of transfer of custody to the noncustodial parent does not relieve the Department of Human Services of the responsibility to provide services to the parent from whom custody was removed, unless the court enters an order to relieve the department of the responsibility.

(c) A home study is not required to transfer custody to a parent of the juvenile.

(v) If the court determines that the child cannot safely be placed in the custody of the noncustodial parent, the court shall make specific findings of fact regarding the safety factors that need to be corrected by the noncustodial parent before placement or family time with the juvenile.

(2) Unless the court finds that a removal occurred due to an emergency and the agency had no prior contact with the family or the child, evidence shall be presented to the court regarding all prior contact between the agency and the juvenile or the family before a finding of reasonable efforts to prevent removal by the department.

(3) A finding of reasonable efforts to prevent removal of the juvenile is void if the court determines that the department failed to disclose all prior contact between the agency and juvenile or the family before the finding.

(4)(A) The dependency-neglect adjudication hearing shall be held within thirty (30) days after the probable cause hearing under § 9-35-310.

(B) On a motion of the court or any party, the court may continue the adjudication hearing up to sixty (60) days after the removal for good cause shown.

(C)(i) The court may continue an adjudication hearing beyond the sixty-day limitation provided in subdivision (a)(4)(B) of this section in extraordinary circumstances.

(ii) As used in this subdivision (a)(4)(C), "extraordinary circumstances" includes without limitation the following circumstances:

(a) The Supreme Court orders the suspension of in-person court proceedings; and

(b) One (1) of the following has occurred:

(1) The President of the United States has declared a national emergency; or

(2) The Governor has declared a state of emergency or a statewide public health emergency.

(5) If the juvenile has previously been adjudicated a dependent-neglected juvenile in the same case in which a motion for a change of custody has been filed to remove the juvenile from the custody of a parent, a subsequent adjudication is required if the ground for the removal is not the same as the ground previously adjudicated.

(b)(1) Following an adjudication in which a juvenile is found to be dependent-neglected, the court may order any studies, evaluations, or predisposition reports, if needed, that bear on disposition.

(2)(A) All reports under subdivision (b)(1) of this section shall be provided in writing to all parties and counsel at least two (2) days before the disposition hearing.

(B) All parties shall be given a fair opportunity to controvert any parts of reports under subdivision (b)(1) of this section.

(c) A written adjudication order shall be filed by the court, or by a party or party's attorney as designated by the court, within thirty (30) days of the date of the hearing or before the next hearing, whichever is sooner.

9-35-317. Limitations on detention.

(a)(1) A juvenile who is alleged to be or who has been adjudicated either dependent-neglected or a member of a family in need of services shall not be placed or detained in a secure detention facility, in a facility utilized for the detention of alleged or adjudicated delinquent juveniles, or in a facility utilized for the detention of adults held for, charged with, or convicted of a crime except that a juvenile may be held in a juvenile detention facility when he or she has been away from home for more than twenty-four (24) hours and when the parent, guardian, or other person contacted lives beyond fifty miles (50 mi.) from the juvenile or out of state.

(2) The juvenile may be held in custody in a juvenile detention facility for purposes of identification, processing, or arranging for release or transfer to an alternative facility.

(3) The period of holding shall be limited to the minimum time necessary to complete the actions listed in subdivision (a)(2) of this section and shall not occur in any facility utilized for incarceration of adults.

(b)(1) A juvenile held under subdivision (a)(1) of this section shall be separated from detained juveniles charged or held for delinquency.

(2) A juvenile shall not be held under subdivision (a)(1) of this section for more than six (6) hours if the parent, guardian, or other person contacted lives in the state or twenty-four (24) hours, excluding weekends and holidays, if the parent, guardian, or other person contacted lives out of state.

9-35-318. Removal of juvenile.

(a) Before a circuit court may order any dependent-neglected juvenile or family in need of services juvenile removed from the custody of his or her parent, guardian, or custodian and placed with the Department of Human Services or other licensed agency responsible for the care of juveniles or with a relative or other individual, the court shall order family services appropriate to prevent removal unless the health and safety of the juvenile warrant immediate removal for the protection of the juvenile.

(b) When the court orders a dependent-neglected juvenile removed from the custody of a parent, guardian, or custodian and placed in the custody of the department or other licensed agency responsible for the care of juveniles or with a relative or other individual, the court shall make these specific findings in the order:

(1) In the initial order of removal, the court must find whether:

(A) It is contrary to the welfare of the juvenile to remain at home;

(B) The removal and the reasons for the removal of the juvenile is necessary to protect the health and safety of the juvenile; and

(C) The removal is in the best interest of the juvenile; and

(2) Within sixty (6) days of removal, the court must find:

(A) Which family services were made available to the family before the removal of the juvenile;

(B) What efforts were made to provide those family services relevant to the needs of the family before the removal of the juvenile, taking into consideration whether or not the juvenile could safely remain at home while family services were provided;

(C) Why efforts made to provide the family services described did not prevent the removal of the juvenile; and

(D) Whether efforts made to prevent the removal of the juvenile were reasonable, based upon the needs of the family and the juvenile.

(c) When the state agency's first contact with the family has occurred during an emergency in which the juvenile could not safely remain at home, even with reasonable services being provided, the responsible state agency shall be deemed to have made reasonable efforts to prevent or eliminate the need for removal.

(d) When the court finds that the department's preventive or reunification efforts have not been reasonable, but further preventive or reunification efforts could not permit the juvenile to remain safely at home, the court may authorize or continue the removal of the juvenile but shall note the failure by the department in the record of the case.

(e)(1) In all instances of removal of a juvenile from the home of his or her parent, guardian, or custodian by a court, the court shall set forth in a written order:

(A) The evidence supporting the decision to remove;

(B) The facts regarding the need for removal; and

(C) The findings required by this section.

(2) The written findings and order shall be filed by the court or by a party or party's attorney as designated by the court within thirty (30) days of the date of the hearing at which removal is ordered or prior to the next hearing, whichever is sooner.

(f) Within one (1) year from the date of removal of the juvenile and annually thereafter, the court shall determine whether the department has made reasonable efforts to obtain permanency for the juvenile.

(g)(1) If the court transfers custody of a child to the department, the court shall issue an order containing the following determinations regarding the educational issues of the child and whether the parent or guardian of the child may:

(A) Have access to the child's school records;

(B) Obtain information on the current placement of the child, including the name and address of the child's foster parent or provider, if the parent or guardian has access to the child's school records; and

(C) Participate in school conferences or similar activities at the child's school.

(2) If the court transfers custody of a child to the department, the court may appoint an individual to consent to an initial evaluation of the child and serve as the child's surrogate parent under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. § 1400 et seq., as it existed on January 1, 2025.

9-35-319. Disposition hearing.

(a) If the circuit court finds that the petition has been substantiated by the proof at the adjudication hearing, a disposition hearing shall be held for the court to enter orders consistent with the disposition alternatives.

(b) In dependency-neglect proceedings, the disposition hearing may be held immediately following or concurrent with the adjudication hearing but in any event shall be held no more than fourteen (14) days following the adjudication hearing.

(c) In initially considering the disposition alternatives and at any subsequent hearing, the court shall give preference to the least restrictive disposition consistent with the best interests and welfare of the juvenile and the public.

(d) In dependency-neglect cases, a written disposition order shall be filed by the court, or by a party or party's attorney as designated by the court, within thirty (30) days of the date of the hearing or prior to the next hearing, whichever is sooner.

9-35-320. Disposition — Dependent-neglected — Generally.

(a) If a juvenile is found to be dependent-neglected, the circuit court may enter an order making any of the following dispositions:

(1) Order family services;

(2)(A) If it is in the best interest of the juvenile, transfer custody of the juvenile to the Department of Human Services, to another licensed agency responsible for the care of juveniles, or to a relative or other individual.

(B) If the court grants custody of the juvenile to the department, the juvenile shall be placed in a licensed or approved foster home, shelter, or facility, or an exempt child welfare agency as defined under § 9-28-402.

(C) A juvenile in the custody of the department is “awaiting foster care placement”, as that term is used in the definition of “homeless children and youths” in the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. § 11434a(2), as it existed on January 1, 2025, if the juvenile:

- (i) Is placed in a shelter, facility, or other short-term placement with a plan of moving the juvenile within ninety (90) days;
- (ii) Is transferred to an emergency placement to protect the juvenile's health or welfare;
- (iii) Is placed in a provisional foster home as defined under § 9-28-402;
- (iv) Has experienced three (3) or more placements within a twelve-month period; or
- (v) Is placed in a regular foster home or other placement that is not directly related to the permanency goal identified in the case plan required under § 9-28-111;

(3)(A) Order that the parent, both parents, or the guardian of the juvenile attend a court-ordered parental responsibility training program, if available, and participate in a juvenile drug court program.

(B) The court may make reasonable orders requiring proof of completion of such a training program within a certain time period and payment of a fee covering the cost of the training program;

(4) Determine the most appropriate goal of the case; and

(5) Order that the parent, both parents, or the guardian or custodian of the juvenile participate in a family treatment specialty court program under § 9-27-801 et seq., if available.

(b) Such an order of custody shall supersede an existing court order of custody and shall remain in full force and effect until a subsequent order of custody is entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(c) The court may provide that any violation of its orders shall subject any party in violation to contempt sanctions.

9-35-321. Disposition — Dependent-neglected — Limitations.

(a)(1) At least five (5) working days before ordering the Department of Human Services, excluding community-based providers, to provide or pay for family services in any case in which the department is not a party, the circuit court shall fax a written notice of intent to the Secretary of the Department of Human Services and to the attorney of the local Office of Chief Counsel of the Department of Human Services.

(2) At any hearing in which the department is ordered to provide family services, the court shall provide the department with the opportunity to be heard.

(3) Failure to provide at least five (5) working days' notice to the department renders any part of the order pertaining to the department void.

(b)(1) For purposes of this section, the court shall not specify a particular provider for placement or family services if the department is the payor or provider.

(2)(A) The court may order a child to be placed or to remain in a placement if the court finds the placement is in the best interest of the child after hearing evidence from all parties.

(B) A court may also order a child into a licensed or approved placement after a hearing in which the court makes a finding that it is in the best interest of the child based on bona fide consideration of evidence and recommendations from all the parties.

(C) The court shall not order a child to be placed or remain in a placement in a foster home that has been closed or suspended by a child placement agency.

(D)(i) If the health or welfare of a child is in immediate danger while in a court-ordered placement, the department may immediately remove the child from the court-ordered placement.

(ii) The department shall notify all parties within twenty-four (24) hours of the change in placement under subdivision (b)(2)(D)(i) of this section.

(iii) A party may request a hearing on the change in placement made under subdivision (b)(2)(D)(ii) of this section, and the hearing shall be held within five (5) business days of receiving the request.

(c)(1) In all cases in which family services are ordered, the court shall determine the ability of the parent, guardian, or custodian to pay, in whole or in part, for these family services.

(2) The determination of ability to pay and the evidence supporting it shall be made in writing in the order ordering family services.

(3) If the court determines that the parent, guardian, or custodian is able to pay, in whole or in part, for the family services, the court shall enter a written order setting forth the amount the parent, guardian, or custodian is able to pay for the family services ordered and order the parent, guardian, or custodian to pay the amount periodically to the provider from whom family services are received.

(d)(1) Custody of a juvenile may be transferred to a relative or other individual only after a home study of the placement is conducted by the department or by a licensed social worker who is approved to do home studies and submitted to the court in writing and the court determines that the placement is in the best interest of the juvenile.

(2) A home study is not required for a parent of a juvenile.

(e)(1)(A) The court shall enter an order transferring custody of a juvenile in a dependency-neglect case only after determining that reasonable efforts have been made by the department to deliver family services designed to prevent the need for out-of-home placement and that the need for out-of-home placement exists.

(B) The juvenile's health and safety shall be the paramount concern of the court in determining if the department could have made reasonable efforts to prevent the juvenile's removal.

(2) If the court finds that reasonable efforts to deliver family services could have been made with the juvenile safely remaining at home but were not made, the court may:

(A) Dismiss the petition;

(B) Order family services reasonably calculated to prevent the need for out-of-home placement; or

(C) Transfer custody of the juvenile despite the lack of reasonable efforts by the department to prevent the need for out-of-home placement if the transfer is necessary:

(i) To protect the juvenile's health and safety; or

(ii) To prevent the removal of the juvenile from the jurisdiction of the court.

(f) In a case of medical neglect involving a child's receiving treatment through prayer alone in accordance with a religious method of healing in lieu of medical care, the adjudication order shall be limited to:

(1) Preventing or remedying serious harm to the child; or

(2) Preventing the withholding of medically indicated treatment from a child with a life-threatening condition.

(g) A court shall not commit a juvenile found solely in criminal contempt to the Division of Youth Services.

(h) For purposes of this section, the court shall not order the department to expend or forward Social Security benefits for which the department is payee.

9-35-322. Limitations on detention.

(a) A juvenile who is alleged to be or who has been adjudicated either dependent-neglected shall not be placed or detained in a secure detention facility, in a facility utilized for the detention of alleged or adjudicated delinquent juveniles, or in a facility utilized for the detention of adults held for, charged with, or convicted of a crime except:

(1)(A) A juvenile may be held in a juvenile detention facility when he or she has been away from home for more than twenty-four (24) hours and when the parent, guardian, or other person contacted lives beyond a fifty-mile driving distance or out of state.

(B)(i) The juvenile may be held in custody in a juvenile detention facility for purposes of identification, processing, or arranging for release or transfer to an alternative facility.

(ii) The holding shall be limited to the minimum time necessary to complete these actions and shall not occur in any facility utilized for incarceration of adults.

(C)(i) A juvenile held under this subdivision (a)(1) shall be separated from detained juveniles charged or held for delinquency.

(ii) A juvenile may not be held under this subdivision (a)(1) for more than six (6) hours if the parent, guardian, or other person contacted lives in the state or twenty-four (24) hours, excluding weekends and holidays, if the parent, guardian, or other person contacted lives out of state; and

(2)(A) An adjudicated-family-in-need-of-services juvenile may be held in a juvenile detention facility when the court finds that the juvenile violated a valid court order.

(B)(i) For the purposes of this subdivision (a)(2), a valid court order shall include any order of a circuit court regarding a juvenile who has been brought before the court and made subject to a court order.

(ii) The juvenile who is the subject of the order shall receive full due process rights.

(C)(i) A juvenile held under this subdivision (a)(2) shall be separated from detained juveniles charged or held for delinquency.

(ii) The holding shall not occur in any facility utilized for incarceration of adults.

(b) A juvenile shall not be placed or confined in a jail or lock-up used for the detention of adults except under the following circumstances:

(1) A juvenile who has been formally transferred from the juvenile division of circuit court to the criminal division of circuit court and against whom felony charges have been filed or a juvenile whom the prosecuting attorney has the discretion to charge in circuit court and to prosecute as an adult and against whom the circuit court's jurisdiction has been invoked by the filing of felony charges may be held in an adult jail or lock-up;

(2)(A) A juvenile alleged to have committed a delinquent act may be held in an adult jail or lock-up for up to six (6) hours for purposes of identification, processing, or arranging for release or transfer to an alternative facility, provided that he or she is separated by sight and sound from adults who are pretrial detainees or convicted persons.

(B) A holding for those purposes shall be limited to the minimum time necessary and shall not include travel time for transporting the juvenile to the alternative facility; or

(3)(A) A juvenile alleged to have committed a delinquent act who is awaiting an initial appearance before a judge may be held in an adult jail or lock-up for up to twenty-four (24) hours, excluding weekends and holidays, provided the following conditions exist:

(i) The alleged act would be a misdemeanor or a felony if committed by an adult or is a violation of § 5-73-119;

(ii) The geographical area having jurisdiction over the juvenile is outside a metropolitan statistical area pursuant to the current designation of the United States Bureau of the Census;

(iii) No acceptable alternative placement for the juvenile exists; and

(iv) The juvenile is separated by sight and sound from adults who are pretrial detainees or convicted persons.

(B)(i) A juvenile awaiting an initial appearance and being held in an adult jail or lock-up pursuant to the twenty-four-hour exception, as provided in subdivision (b)(3)(A) of this section, may be held for an additional period not to exceed twenty-four (24) hours, provided that the following conditions exist:

(a) The conditions of distance to be traveled or the lack of highway, road, or other ground transportation does not allow for court appearances within twenty-four (24) hours; and

(b) All the conditions in subdivision (b)(3)(A) of this section exist.

(ii) Criteria will be adopted by the Governor or his or her designee to establish what distance, highway or road conditions, or ground transportation limitations will provide a basis for holding a juvenile in an adult jail or lock-up under this exception.

(c) Provided that the facilities are designed and used in accordance with federal and state guidelines and restrictions, nothing in this subchapter is intended to prohibit the use of juvenile detention facilities that are attached to or adjacent to adult jails or lock-ups.

(d) A detention facility shall not release a serious offender for a less serious offender except by order of the judge who committed the more serious offender.

9-35-323. Six-month reviews required.

(a)(1) The court shall review every case of dependency-neglect when:

(A) A juvenile is placed by the court in the custody of the Department of Human Services or in another out-of-home placement until there is a permanent order of custody, guardianship, or other permanent placement for the juvenile; or

(B) A juvenile is returned to the parent from whom the child was removed, another fit parent, guardian, or custodian and the court has not discontinued orders for family services.

(2)(A) The first six-month review shall be held no later than six (6) months from the date of the original out-of-home placement of the child and shall be scheduled by the court following the adjudication and disposition hearing.

(B) A dependency-neglect case shall be reviewed every six (6) months thereafter until permanency is achieved.

(3) A six-month review hearing shall not be required for a juvenile who:

(A) Is over eighteen (18) years of age; and

(B) Has elected to remain in extended foster care or to return to extended foster care under § 9-35-302(a)(1)(A)(ii).

(b) The court may require a dependency-neglect case to be reviewed before the sixth-month review hearing, and the court shall announce the date, time, and place of the hearing.

(c) At any time during the pendency of any case of dependency-neglect in which an out-of-home placement has occurred, any party may request the court to review the case, and the party requesting the hearing shall provide reasonable notice to all parties.

(d) At any time during the course of a case, the department, the attorney ad litem, or the court can request a hearing on whether or not reunification services should be terminated under § 9-35-335.

(e)(1) In each case in which a juvenile has been placed in an out-of-home placement, the court shall conduct a hearing to review the case sufficiently to determine the future status of the juvenile based upon the best interest of the juvenile.

(2)(A) The court shall determine and include in its orders the following:

(i) Whether the case plan, services, and placement meet the special needs and best interest of the juvenile, with the juvenile's health, safety, and educational needs specifically addressed;

(ii) Whether the state has made reasonable efforts to provide family services;

(iii) Whether the parent or parents or person from whom custody was removed has demonstrated progress toward the goals of the case plan and whether completion of the goals has benefited the parent in remedying the issues that prevent the safe return of the juvenile;

(iv) Whether the case plan is moving toward an appropriate permanency plan under § 9-35-324 for the juvenile;

(v) Whether the visitation plan is appropriate for the juvenile, the parent or parents, and any siblings, if separated; and

(vi)(a) Whether the juvenile should be returned to his or her parent or parents and whether or not the juvenile's health and safety can be protected by his or her parent or parents if returned home, either permanently or for a trial placement.

(b) At any time the court determines that the health and safety of the child can be adequately protected and it is in the best interest of the child, the court shall return the child to a parent or parents from whom custody was removed.

(B)(i) The court may order any studies, evaluations, or post-disposition reports, if needed.

(ii) All studies, evaluations, or post-disposition reports shall be provided in writing to all parties and counsel at least two (2) days before the review hearing.

(iii) All parties shall be given a fair opportunity to controvert any part of a study, evaluation, or post-disposition report.

(3)(A) In making its findings, the court shall consider the following:

(i) The extent of compliance with the case plan, including without limitation a review of the department's care for the health, safety, and education of the juvenile while he or she has been in an out-of-home placement;

(ii) The extent of progress that has been made toward alleviating or mitigating the causes of the out-of-home placement;

(iii) Whether the juvenile should be returned to his or her parents or parents and whether or not the juvenile's health and safety can be protected by his or her parent or parents if returned home; and

(iv) An appropriate permanency plan under § 9-35-324 for the juvenile, including concurrent planning.

(B) Incompletion of the case plan under subdivision (e)(3)(A)(i) of this section is an insufficient reason by itself to deny the juvenile's return to the family home.

(f) Each six-month review hearing shall be completed, and the written order under subsection (e) of this section shall be filed by the court or by a party or a party's attorney as designated by the court and distributed to the parties within thirty (30) days of the date of the hearing or before the next hearing, whichever is sooner.

9-35-324. Permanency planning hearing.

(a)(1) A permanency planning hearing shall be held to finalize a permanency plan for the juvenile:

(A) No later than twelve (12) months after the date the juvenile enters an out-of-home placement;

(B) After a juvenile has been in an out-of-home placement for fifteen (15) of the previous twenty-two (22) months, excluding trial placements and time on runaway status; or

(C) No later than thirty (30) days after a hearing granting no reunification services.

(2) If a juvenile remains in an out-of-home placement after the initial permanency planning hearing, a permanency planning hearing shall be held annually to reassess the permanency plan selected for the juvenile.

(b)(1) This section does not prevent the Department of Human Services or the attorney ad litem from filing at any time before the permanency planning hearing a petition:

(A) To terminate parental rights;

(B) For guardianship; or

(C) For permanent custody.

(2) A permanency planning hearing is not required before the filing of the petitions under subdivision (b)(1) of this section.

(c) At the permanency planning hearing, based upon the facts of the case, the circuit court shall enter one (1) of the following permanency goals, listed in order of preference, in accordance with the best interest, health, and safety of the juvenile:

(1) Placing custody of the juvenile with a fit parent at the permanency planning hearing;

(2) Returning the juvenile to the guardian or custodian from whom the juvenile was initially removed at the permanency planning hearing;

(3) Authorizing a plan to place custody of the juvenile with a parent, guardian, or custodian only if the court finds that:

(A)(i) The parent, guardian, or custodian is complying with the established case plan and orders of the court, making significant and measurable progress toward achieving the goals established in the case plan and diligently working toward reunification or placement in the home of the parent, guardian, or custodian.

(ii) Regardless of when the effort was made, the court shall consider all evidence of an effort made by the parent, guardian, or custodian to remedy the conditions that led to the removal of the juvenile from the custody of the parent, guardian, or custodian and give the evidence the appropriate weight and consideration in relation to the safety, health, and well-being of the juvenile.

(iii) The burden is on the parent, guardian, or custodian to demonstrate genuine, sustainable investment in completing the requirements of the case plan and following the orders of the court in order to authorize a plan to return or be placed in the home as the permanency goal;

(B) The parent, guardian, or custodian is making significant and measurable progress toward remedying the conditions that:

(i) Caused the juvenile's removal and the juvenile's continued removal from the home; or

(ii) Prohibit placement of the juvenile in the home of a parent; and

(C)(i) Placement of the juvenile in the home of the parent, guardian, or custodian shall occur within a time frame consistent with the juvenile's developmental needs but no later than three (3) months from the date of the permanency planning hearing.

(ii) The court may authorize a plan to place custody of a juvenile with a parent, guardian, or custodian of the juvenile despite finding that placement of the juvenile in the home of the parent, guardian, or custodian of the juvenile may not occur within the three-month period required under subdivision (c)(3)(C)(i) of this section if the plan is in the best interest of the child during extraordinary circumstances.

(iii) As used in this subdivision (c)(3)(C), "extraordinary circumstances" includes without limitation the following circumstances:

(a) The Supreme Court orders the suspension of in-person court proceedings; and

(b) One (1) of the following has occurred:

(1) The President of the United States has declared a national emergency; or

(2) The Governor has declared a state of emergency or a statewide public health emergency;

(4) Authorizing a plan to obtain a guardianship or adoption with a fit and willing relative;

(5) Authorizing a plan for adoption with the department's filing a petition for termination of parental rights unless:

(A) The juvenile is being cared for by a relative and the court finds that:

(i) Either:

(a) The relative has made a long-term commitment to the child and the relative is willing to pursue guardianship or permanent custody; or

(b) The juvenile is being cared for by his or her minor parent who is in foster care; and

(ii) Termination of parental rights is not in the best interest of the juvenile;

(B) The department has documented in the case plan a compelling reason why filing a petition for termination of parental rights is not in the best interest of the juvenile and the court approves the compelling reason as documented in the case plan; or

(C)(i) The department has not provided to the family of the juvenile, consistent with the time period in the case plan, the services as the department deemed necessary for the safe return of the juvenile to the juvenile's home if reunification services were required to be made to the family.

(ii) If the department has failed to provide services as outlined in the case plan, the court shall schedule another permanency planning hearing for no later than six (6) months;

(6) Authorizing a plan to obtain a guardian for the juvenile;

(7) Authorizing a plan to obtain a permanent custodian, including permanent custody with a fit and willing relative; or

(8)(A) Authorizing a plan for another planned permanent living arrangement that includes a permanent planned living arrangement and addresses the quality of services, including, but not limited to, independent living services and a plan for the supervision and nurturing the juvenile will receive.

(B) Another planned permanent living arrangement shall be selected only if:

(i) The department has documented to the circuit court a compelling reason for determining that it would not be in the best interest of the child to follow one (1) of the permanency plans identified in subdivisions (c)(1)-(7) of this section and this subdivision (c)(8);

(ii) The child is sixteen (16) years of age or older; and

(iii) The court makes a judicial determination explaining why, as of the date of the hearing, another planned permanent living arrangement is the best permanency plan for the juvenile and the court finds compelling reasons why it continues to not be in the best interest of the juvenile to:

(a) Return home;

(b) Be placed for adoption;

(c) Be placed with a legal guardian; or

(d) Be placed with a fit and willing relative.

(d) At the permanency planning hearing on a juvenile sixteen (16) years of age or older, the court shall ask the juvenile his or her desired permanency outcome, or the attorney ad litem shall enter evidence concerning the child's wishes.

(e) At every permanency planning hearing the court shall make a finding on whether the department has made reasonable efforts and shall describe the efforts to finalize a permanency plan for the juvenile.

(f) A written order shall be filed by the court or by a party or party's attorney as designated by the court and distributed to the parties within thirty (30) days of the date of the hearing or prior to the next hearing, whichever is sooner.

(g) If the court determines that the permanency goal is adoption, the department shall file the petition to terminate parental rights within thirty (30) days from the date of the permanency planning hearing that establishes adoption as the permanency goal.

(h)(1) The court shall determine if establishing concurrent permanency planning goals is appropriate.

(2) If the court determines that establishing concurrent permanency planning goals is appropriate, the court shall establish all appropriate permanency planning goals subject to the requirements of this section.

(3) If the court sets a goal of adoption, reunification services shall continue to be provided unless the court:

(A) Determines that the reunification services are no longer needed;

(B) Terminates parental rights; or

(C) Otherwise finalizes a permanency plan for the juvenile.

9-35-325. Termination of parental rights — Definition.

(a)(1)(A) This section shall be a remedy available only to the Department of Human Services or a court-appointed attorney ad litem.

(B) This section shall not be available for private litigants or other agencies.

(2)(A) This section shall be used only in cases in which the department is attempting to clear a juvenile for permanent placement by terminating the parental rights of a parent and putative parent based on the definition of "parent" and "putative father" under § 9-35-102.

(B) This section shall not be used to terminate the rights of a putative parent if a court of competent jurisdiction has previously determined under § 9-35-314 that the rights of the putative parent have not attached.

(3) The intent of this section is to provide permanency in a juvenile's life in all instances in which the return of a juvenile to the family home is contrary to the juvenile's health, safety, or welfare and it appears from the evidence that a return to the family home cannot be accomplished in a reasonable period of time as viewed from the juvenile's perspective.

(4) The court shall rely upon the record of the parents' compliance in the entire dependency-neglect case and evidence presented at the termination hearing in making its decision on whether it is in the best interest of the juvenile to terminate parental rights.

(b)(1)(A) The circuit court may consider a petition to terminate parental rights if the court finds that there is an appropriate permanency placement plan for the juvenile.

(B) This section does not require that a permanency planning hearing be held as a prerequisite to the filing of a petition to terminate parental rights or as a prerequisite to the court's considering a petition to terminate parental rights.

(2)(A) The petitioner shall serve the petition to terminate parental rights as required under Rule 5 of the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure, except:

(i) Service shall be made as required under Rule 4 of the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure if the:

(a) Parent was not served under Rule 4 of the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure at the initiation of the proceeding;

(b) Parent is not represented by an attorney; or

(c) Initiation of the proceeding was more than two (2) years ago; or

(ii) When the court orders service of the petition to terminate parental rights as required under Rule 4 of the Arkansas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(B) The petitioner shall check with the Putative Father Registry if the name or whereabouts of the putative father is unknown.

(3) An order forever terminating parental rights shall be based upon a finding by clear and convincing evidence:

(A) That it is in the best interest of the juvenile, including consideration of the following factors:

(i) The likelihood that the juvenile will be adopted if the termination petition is granted; and

(ii) The potential harm, specifically addressing the effect on the health and safety of the child, caused by returning the child to the custody of the parent, parents, or putative parent or parents; and

(B) Of one (1) or more of the following grounds:

(i)(a) That a juvenile has been adjudicated by the court to be dependent-neglected and has continued to be out of the:

(1) Custody of the parent for twelve (12) months and, despite a meaningful effort by the department to rehabilitate the parent and correct the conditions that caused removal, those conditions have not been remedied by the parent; or

(2) Home of the noncustodial parent for twelve (12) months and, despite a meaningful effort by the department to rehabilitate the parent and correct the conditions that prevented the child from safely being placed in the parent's home, the conditions have not been remedied by the parent.

(b) It is not necessary that the twelve-month period referenced in subdivision (b)(3)(B)(i)(a)(1) of this section immediately precede the filing of the petition for termination of parental rights or that it be for twelve (12) consecutive months;

(ii)(a) The juvenile has lived outside the home of the parent for a period of twelve (12) months, and the parent has willfully failed to provide significant material support in accordance with the parent's means or to maintain meaningful contact with the juvenile.

(b) To find willful failure to maintain meaningful contact, it must be shown that the parent was not prevented from visiting or having contact with the juvenile by the juvenile's custodian or any other person, taking into consideration the distance of the juvenile's placement from the parent's home.

(c) Material support consists of either financial contributions or food, shelter, clothing, or other necessities when the contribution has been requested by the juvenile's custodian or ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(d) It is not necessary that the twelve-month period under subdivision (b)(3)(B)(ii)(a) of this section immediately precede the filing of the petition for termination of parental rights or that it be for twelve (12) consecutive months;

(iii)(a) The parent is not the biological parent of the juvenile and the welfare of the juvenile can best be served by terminating the parental rights of the parent.

(b) A termination of parental rights under subdivision (b)(3)(B)(iii)(a) of this section shall not be considered an involuntary termination;

(iv) A parent has abandoned the juvenile;

(v)(a) A parent has executed consent to termination of parental rights or adoption of the juvenile, subject to the court's approval.

(b) If the consent is executed under oath by a person authorized to administer the oath, the parent is not required to execute the consent in the presence of the court unless required by federal law or federal regulations;

(vi)(a) The court has found the juvenile or a sibling dependent-neglected as a result of neglect or abuse that could endanger the life of the child, sexual abuse, or sexual exploitation, any of which was perpetrated by the juvenile's parent or parents or stepparent or stepparents.

(b) Such findings by the juvenile division of circuit court shall constitute grounds for immediate termination of the parental rights of one (1) or both of the parents;

(vii)(a) That other factors or issues arose subsequent to the filing of the original petition for dependency-neglect that demonstrate that placement of the juvenile in the custody of the parent is contrary to the juvenile's health, safety, or welfare and that, despite the offer of appropriate family services, the parent has manifested the incapacity or indifference to remedy the subsequent issues or factors or rehabilitate the parent's circumstances that prevent the placement of the juvenile in the custody of the parent.

(b) The department shall make reasonable accommodations in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq., as it existed on January 1, 2025, to parents with disabilities in order to allow them meaningful access to reunification and family preservation services.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision (b)(3)(B)(vii), the inability or incapacity to remedy or rehabilitate includes, but is not limited to, mental illness, emotional illness, or mental deficiencies.

(d) Subdivision (b)(3)(B)(vii)(a) of this section does not apply if the factors or issues have not been adjudicated by the court or the parent is not provided with proper notice of the factors or issues;

(viii) The parent is sentenced in a criminal proceeding for a period of time that would constitute a substantial period of the juvenile's life;

(ix)(a) The parent is found by a court of competent jurisdiction, including the juvenile division of the circuit court, to:

(1) Have committed murder or manslaughter of any juvenile or to have aided or abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit the murder or manslaughter;

(2) Have committed a felony battery that results in serious bodily injury to any juvenile or to have aided or abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit felony battery that results in serious bodily injury to any juvenile;

(3)(A) Have subjected any juvenile to aggravated circumstances.

(B) As used in subdivision (b)(3)(B)(ix)(a)(3)(A) of this section, "aggravated circumstances" means:

(i) A juvenile has been abandoned, chronically abused, subjected to extreme or repeated cruelty, sexually abused, or a determination has been or is made by a judge that there is little likelihood that

services to the family will result in successful reunification;

(ii) A juvenile has been removed from the custody of the parent or guardian and placed in foster care or in the custody of another person three (3) or more times in the last fifteen (15) months; or

(iii) A child or a sibling has been neglected or abused to the extent that the abuse or neglect could endanger the life of the child;

(4)(A) Have had his or her parental rights involuntarily terminated as to a child.

(B) It is an affirmative defense to the termination of parental rights based on a prior involuntary termination of parental rights that the parent has remedied the conditions that caused the prior involuntary termination of parental rights; or

(5) Be the parent of an abandoned infant, as defined under § 9-35-102.

(b) This subchapter does not require reunification of a surviving child with a parent who has been found guilty of any of the offenses listed in subdivision (b)(3)(B)(ix)(a) of this section; or (x)(a) A putative parent who fails to establish or maintain meaningful contact with his or her juvenile after:

(1) Being named and served as a party in a dependency-neglect proceeding;

(2) Receiving notice of a dependency-neglect proceeding under § 9-35-306 or § 9-35-312; and

(3) The court finds that the rights of the putative parent with regard to the juvenile have attached.

(b) To find willful failure to maintain meaningful contact, it shall be shown that the putative parent was not prevented from visiting or having contact with the juvenile by the custodian of the juvenile or any other person, taking into consideration the distance of the juvenile's placement from the putative parent's home.

(c) A termination of parental rights under subdivision (b)(3)(B)(x)(a) of this section shall not be considered an involuntary termination.

(d)(1) Subdivision (b)(3)(B)(x)(a) of this section does not apply to a putative parent whose rights have not attached to a juvenile.

(2) If a court finds that the rights of the putative parent have not attached to the juvenile, the court shall dismiss the putative parent from the petition to terminate parental rights and enter an order finding that no further notice is due to the putative parent.

(c)(1) An order terminating the relationship between parent and juvenile:

(A) Divests the parent and the juvenile of all legal rights, powers, and obligations with respect to each other, including the right to withhold consent to adoption, except the right of the juvenile to inherit from the parent, that is terminated only by a final order of adoption; and

(B)(i) Divests a putative parent and the juvenile of all rights, powers, and obligations with respect to the putative parent and the juvenile if the rights of the putative parent have attached under § 9-35-314 before or during the termination proceeding.

(ii) The divesting of all the rights, powers, and obligations of the putative parent and the juvenile shall be based on the same authority, requirements, limitations, and other provisions that apply to the termination of the rights of a parent, including without limitation the provision requiring the dismissal of a putative parent as a party to a case without further notice to the putative parent.

(2)(A) Termination of the relationship between a juvenile and one parent shall not affect the relationship between the juvenile and the other parent if those rights are legally established.

(B) A court may terminate the rights of one parent and not the other parent if the court finds that it is in the best interest of the child.

(3) An order terminating parental rights under this section:

(A) May authorize the department to consent to adoption of the juvenile; and

(B) Dismisses the parent or putative parent subject to the termination of parental rights as a party to the case without further notice to the parent or putative parent required.

(d)(1) The court shall conduct and complete a termination of parental rights hearing within ninety (90) days from the date the petition for termination of parental rights is filed unless continued for good cause as articulated in the written order of the court.

(2)(A) The court may continue a termination of parental rights hearing for up to one hundred eighty (180) days from the date the petition for termination of parental rights is filed in extraordinary circumstances.

(B) As used in this subdivision (d)(2), "extraordinary circumstances" includes without limitation the following circumstances:

(i) The Supreme Court orders the suspension of in-person court proceedings; and

(ii) One (1) of the following has occurred:

(a) The President of the United States has declared a national emergency; or

(b) The Governor has declared a state of emergency or a statewide public health emergency.

(e) A written order shall be filed by the court or by a party or party's counsel as designated by the court within thirty (30) days of the date of the termination hearing or before the next hearing, whichever is sooner.

(f) After the termination of parental rights hearing, the court shall review the case at least every six (6) months, and a permanency planning hearing shall be held each year following the initial permanency hearing until permanency is achieved for that juvenile.

(g)(1)(A) A parent may withdraw consent to termination of parental rights within ten (10) calendar days after it was signed by filing an affidavit with the circuit clerk in the county designated by the consent as the county in which the termination of parental rights will be filed.

(B) If the ten-day period ends on a weekend or legal holiday, the person may file the affidavit the next working day.

(C) No fee shall be charged for the filing of the affidavit.

(2) The consent to terminate parental rights shall state that the person has the right of withdrawal of consent and shall provide the address of the circuit clerk of the county in which the termination of parental rights will be filed.

(h) Upon the entry of an order terminating parental rights the:

(1) Department is relieved of all responsibility for providing reunification services to the parent whose parental rights are terminated;

(2) Appointed parent counsel is relieved of his or her representation of the parent whose parental rights are terminated except as provided under Rules 6-9 and 6-10 of the Rules of the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals of the State of Arkansas;

(3) Appointed parent counsel shall be reappointed to represent a parent who successfully appeals the termination of his or her parental rights if the parent is indigent; and

(4) Parent whose parental rights are terminated or a putative parent who after receiving notice is determined by a court to not have rights attached to the juvenile is not entitled to:

(A) Notice of any court proceeding concerning the juvenile, including a petition for adoption concerning the juvenile; and

(B) An opportunity to be heard in any court proceeding concerning the juvenile.

9-35-326. Proceedings concerning juveniles for whom paternity not established.

(a) Absent orders of a circuit court or another court of competent jurisdiction to the contrary, the biological mother, whether adult or minor, of a juvenile for whom paternity has not been established is deemed to be the natural guardian of that juvenile and is entitled to the care, custody, and control of that juvenile.

(b) The biological mother, the putative father, the juvenile himself or herself, or the Office of Child Support Enforcement may bring an action to establish paternity or support of a juvenile for whom paternity has not been established.

(c)(1) If the juvenile is not born when the parties appear before the court, the court may hear evidence and issue temporary orders and findings pending the birth of the juvenile.

(2) In the event the final order is contrary to the temporary one, the court shall render judgment for the amount paid under the temporary order against the petitioner if such was the biological mother.

(3) If the mother dies before the final order, the action may be revived in the name of the juvenile, and the mother's testimony at the temporary hearing may be introduced in the final hearing.

(d)(1) Upon an adjudication by the court that the putative father is the father of the juvenile, the court shall follow the same guidelines, procedures, and requirements as established by the laws of this state applicable to child support orders and judgments entered upon divorce.

(2) The court may award court costs and attorney's fees.

(e)(1) If paternity has been established in a court of competent jurisdiction, a father may petition the court in the county where the juvenile resides for custody of the juvenile.

(2) The court may award custody to a father who has had paternity established if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(A) He is a fit parent to raise the juvenile;

(B) He has assumed his responsibilities toward the juvenile by providing care, supervision, protection, and financial support for the juvenile; and

(C) It is in the best interest of the juvenile to award custody to the father.

(f) At the request of either party in a paternity action, the trial court shall direct that the putative father, biological mother, and juvenile submit to one (1) or more blood tests or other scientific examinations or tests, including deoxyribonucleic acid typing, to:

(1) Determine whether or not the putative father can be excluded as being the father of the juvenile; and

(2) Establish the probability of paternity if the test does not exclude the putative father.

(g) The tests under subsection (f) of this section shall be made by a duly qualified physician or physicians, or by another duly qualified person or persons, not to exceed three (3), to be appointed by the court.

(h)(1) The results of the tests under subsection (f) of this section shall be receivable in evidence.

(2)(A)(i) A written report of the test results by the duly qualified expert performing the test, or by a duly qualified expert under whose supervision and direction the test and analysis have been performed, certified by an affidavit duly subscribed and sworn to by the expert before a notary public, may be introduced in evidence in illegitimacy actions without calling the expert as a witness.

(ii) If either party shall desire to question the expert, the party shall have the expert subpoenaed within a reasonable time before trial.

(B) If the results of the paternity tests establish a ninety-five percent (95%) or more probability of inclusion that the putative father is the biological father of the juvenile and after corroborating testimony of the mother in regard to access during the probable period of conception, this shall constitute a prima facie case of establishment of paternity and the burden of proof shall shift to the putative father to rebut such proof.

(3) The experts shall be subject to cross-examination by both parties after the court has caused them to disclose their findings.

(i) Whenever the court orders the blood tests to be taken and one (1) of the parties refuses to submit to the test, that fact shall be disclosed upon the trial unless good cause is shown to the contrary.

(j) The costs of the test and witness fees shall be taxed by the court as other costs in the case.

(k) Whenever it shall be relevant to the prosecution or the defense in a paternity action, blood tests that exclude third parties as the father of the juvenile shall be the same as set out in subsections (f) and (g) of this section.

(l) The refusal of a party to submit to a genetic or other ordered test is admissible at a hearing to determine paternity only as to the credibility of the party.

(m) If a male witness offers testimony indicating that his act of intercourse with the mother may have resulted in the conception of the juvenile, the court may require the witness to submit to genetic or other tests to determine whether he is the juvenile's father.

9-35-327. Appeals.

(a) An appeal shall be made to the Supreme Court or to the Court of Appeals in the time and manner provided for an appeal in the Arkansas Rules of Appellate Procedure.

(b) Pending an appeal from any case involving a juvenile out-of-home placement, the juvenile division of circuit court retains jurisdiction to conduct further hearings.

9-35-328. Duties and responsibilities of custodian.

(a) A person or agency appointed as the custodian of a juvenile in a proceeding under this subchapter shall:

(1) Care for and maintain the juvenile; and

(2) See that the juvenile:

(A) Is protected;

(B) Is properly trained and educated; and

(C) Has the opportunity to learn a trade, occupation, or profession.

(b)(1) The person or agency appointed as the custodian of a juvenile in a proceeding under this subchapter has the right to obtain medical care for the juvenile, including giving consent to specific medical, dental, or mental health treatments and procedures as required in the opinion of a duly authorized or licensed physician, dentist, surgeon, or psychologist, whether or not such care is rendered on an emergency, inpatient, or outpatient basis.

(2) If there is an open dependency-neglect proceeding, the custodian shall not make any of the following decisions without receiving express court approval:

(A) Consent to the removal of bodily organs, unless the procedure is necessary to save the life of the juvenile;

(B) Consent to withhold life-saving treatments;

(C) Consent to withhold life-sustaining treatments; or

(D) The amputation of any body part, unless the procedure is necessary in an emergency to save the life of the juvenile.

(c) The custodian has the right to enroll the juvenile in school upon the presentation of an order of custody.

(d) The custodian has the right to obtain medical and school records of any juvenile in his or her custody upon presentation of an order of custody.

(e) Any agency appointed as the custodian of a juvenile has the right to consent to the juvenile's travel on vacation or similar trips.

(f)(1) It shall be the duty of every person granted custody, guardianship, or adoption of any juvenile in a proceeding under or arising out of a dependency-neglect action under this subchapter to ensure that the juvenile is not returned to the care or supervision of any person from whom the child was removed or any person the court has specifically ordered not to have care, supervision, or custody of the juvenile.

(2) This section shall not be construed to prohibit these placements if the person who has been granted custody, guardianship, or adoption obtains a court order to that effect from the juvenile division of circuit court that made the award of custody, guardianship, or adoption.

(3) Failure to abide by subdivision (f)(1) of this section is punishable as a criminal offense under § 5-26-502(a)(3).

(g)(1) The court shall not split custody.

(2) As used in this section, "split custody" means granting legal custody to one (1) person or agency and granting physical custody to another person or agency.

9-35-329. Progress reports on juveniles.

(a)(1) The court may order progress reports from a service provider whenever a juvenile is placed out of home and in a setting other than a Department of Human Services foster home.

(2) The order shall:

(A) Set forth the schedule for the progress reports; and

(B) Identify the service provider responsible for submitting the progress reports.

(3) The service provider shall be provided a copy of the written court order by:

(A) Certified mail, restricted delivery; or

(B) Process server.

(4) Failure to follow the order of the court shall subject the service provider to contempt sanctions of the court.

(b) A progress report shall include, but not be limited to the:

(1) Reason for admission;

(2) Projected length of stay;

(3) Identified goals and objectives to be addressed during placement;

(4) Progress of the juvenile in meeting goals and objectives;

(5) Barriers to progress;

(6) Significant behavioral disruptions and response of provider; and

(7) Recommendations upon the juvenile's release.

(c) The service provider shall immediately report any incidents concerning the juvenile's health or safety to:

(1) The juvenile's attorney or attorney ad litem; and

(2) The custodian of the juvenile.

9-35-330. Placement of juveniles.

(a) The court shall not specify a particular provider for placement of a foster child.

(b)(1)(A) When the Department of Human Services takes custody of a juvenile under § 12-18-1001, or when the court determines that a juvenile shall be removed from his or her home under this subchapter, the department shall conduct an immediate assessment to locate:

- (i) A noncustodial parent of the juvenile;
- (ii) Recommended relatives of the juvenile, including each grandparent of the juvenile, and all parents of the juvenile's sibling if the parent has custody of the sibling; and
- (iii) Fictive kin identified by the juvenile as one (1) or more persons who play or have a significant positive role in his or her life.

(B)(i) If there is a safety issue identified from a Child Maltreatment Central Registry check or criminal background check, the department is not required to provide further assessment or notice to the persons identified under subdivision (b)(1)(A) of this section.

(ii) If there is not a safety issue identified in a Child Maltreatment Central Registry check or criminal background check regarding all the persons identified under subdivision (b)(1)(A) of this section, the department shall provide in writing to the persons identified the following notice:

- (a) A statement saying that the juvenile has been or is being removed from his or her parent;
- (b) An explanation concerning how to participate and be considered for care, placement, and family time with the juvenile;
- (c) Information needed for a child welfare safety check and home study, if the person is interested in placement;
- (d) Information about provisional relative foster care, fictive kin, and other supportive benefits available through the department;
- (e) A statement saying that failure to timely respond may result in the loss of opportunities to be involved in the care, placement, and family time with the juvenile; and
- (f) The name, phone number, email address, and physical address of the caseworker and supervisor assigned to the case.

(C) If the court has not transferred custody to a noncustodial parent, relative, or other individual, or the department has not placed the juvenile in provisional relative placement or fictive kin placement, the department shall continue its assessment under subdivisions (b)(1)(A) and (B) of this section throughout the case.

(D) The department shall provide upon request of the court, parties to the proceeding, or counsel for the parties to the proceeding a record of the efforts made to locate the noncustodial parent, relatives, fictive kin, or other persons identified under subdivision (b)(1)(A) of this section and the results of the assessment, including the following information concerning the identified person:

- (i) Name;

- (ii) Last known address and phone number;
- (iii) The appropriateness of placement based on the department's assessment of the person; and
- (iv) Other identifying or relevant information to the extent known by the department.

(E)(i) A relative or fictive kin identified by the department under subdivision (b)(1)(A) of this section shall be given preferential consideration for placement if the relative or fictive kin meets all relevant protective standards and it is in the best interest of the juvenile to be placed with the relative or fictive kin.

(ii) In all placements, preferential consideration for a relative or fictive kin shall be given at all stages of the case.

(iii) If the court denies placement with a relative or fictive kin, the court shall make specific findings of fact in writing regarding the considerations given to the relative or fictive kin and the reasons the placement was denied.

(iv) The court shall not base its decision to place the juvenile solely upon the consideration of the relationship formed between the juvenile and a foster parent.

(F)(i) The court may transfer custody to any relative or any other person recommended by the department, the parent, or any party upon review of a home study, including criminal background and child maltreatment reports, and a finding that custody is in the best interest of the child.

(ii) A home study is not required for a parent of a juvenile.

(2) Placement or custody of a juvenile in the home of a relative, fictive kin, or other person shall not relieve the department of its responsibility to actively implement the goal of the case.

(3)(A) The juvenile shall remain in a licensed or approved foster home, shelter, or facility or an exempt child welfare agency as defined under § 9-28-402 until the home is opened as a regular foster home, as a provisional foster home if the person is a relative to one (1) of the children in the sibling group, including step-siblings, or the court grants custody of the juvenile to the relative, fictive kin, or other person after a written approved home study is presented to the court.

(B) For placement only with a relative or fictive kin:

(i) The juvenile and the juvenile's siblings or step-siblings may be placed in the home of a relative or fictive kin on a provisional basis for up to six (6) months pending the relative or fictive kin's home being opened as a regular foster home;

(ii)(a) If the relative or fictive kin opts to have his or her home opened as a provisional foster home, the relative or fictive kin shall not be paid a board payment until the relative or fictive kin meets all of the requirements and his or her home is opened as a regular foster home.

(b) A relative or fictive kin who has his or her home opened as a provisional foster home may receive a board payment from the department for no more than six (6) months unless fully opened as a foster home;

(iii) Until the relative or fictive kin's home is opened as a regular foster home, the relative or fictive kin may:

(a) Apply for and receive benefits that the relative or fictive kin may be entitled to due to the placement of the juvenile in the home, such as benefits under the Transitional Employment Assistance Program, § 20-76-401, and the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program; and

(b) Receive child support or any federal benefits paid on behalf of the juvenile in the relative or fictive kin's home; and

(iv) If the relative or fictive kin's home is not fully licensed as a foster home after six (6) months of the placement of the juvenile and the siblings or step-siblings in the home:

(a) The department shall remove the juvenile and any of the siblings or step-siblings from the relative or fictive kin's home and close the relative or fictive kin's provisional foster home; or

(b) The court shall remove custody from the department and grant custody of the juvenile to the relative or fictive kin subject to the limitations outlined in subdivision (b)(4) of this section.

(4) If the court grants custody of the juvenile and any siblings or step-siblings to the relative, fictive kin, or other person:

(A)(i) The juvenile and any siblings or step-siblings shall not be placed back in the custody of the department while remaining in the home of the relative, fictive kin, or other person.

(ii) The juvenile and any siblings or step-siblings shall not be removed from the custody of the relative, fictive kin, or other person, placed in the custody of the department, and then remain or be returned to the home of the relative, fictive kin, or other person while remaining in the custody of the department;

(B)(i) The relative, fictive kin, or other person shall not receive any financial assistance, including board payments, from the department, except for financial assistance for which the relative, fictive kin, or other person has applied and for which the relative, fictive kin, or other person qualifies under the program guidelines, such as the Transitional Employment Assistance Program, the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, Medicaid, and a federal adoption subsidy.

(ii) A relative or fictive kin who has his or her home opened as a provisional foster home may receive a monthly board payment from the department for no more than six (6) months unless fully opened as a foster home; and

(C) The department shall not be ordered to pay the equivalent of board payments, adoption subsidies, or guardianship subsidies to the relative, fictive kin, or other person as reasonable efforts to prevent removal of custody from the relative, fictive kin, or other person.

(5) In an action under this subsection concerning placement of a juvenile, the circuit court may consider the preferences of the juvenile if the juvenile is of a sufficient age and capacity to reason, regardless of the juvenile's chronological age.

(c)(1)(A) The court may order a juvenile who is in the custody of the department to be placed in a trial home placement with a parent of the juvenile or the person from whom custody of the juvenile was removed for a period of:

- (i) No longer than sixty (60) days; or
- (ii) More than sixty (60) days but no longer than one hundred eighty (180) days with the consent of the department.

(B) The department may place a juvenile who is in its custody in a trial home placement with a parent of the juvenile or the person from whom custody of the juvenile was removed for no longer than one hundred eighty (180) days.

(C) A trial home placement with a parent who did not have custody of the juvenile at the time of the removal of the juvenile and placement into the custody of the department may occur only after the court or the department determines that:

- (i) The trial home placement is in the best interest of the juvenile;
- (ii) The noncustodial parent does not have a restriction on contact with the juvenile; and
- (iii) There is no safety concern with the trial home placement after reviewing:
  - (a) The criminal background of the noncustodial parent;
  - (b) The home of the noncustodial parent and each person in the home of the noncustodial parent; and
  - (c) Other information in the records of the department, including without limitation records concerning foster care, child maltreatment, protective services, and supportive services.

(2)(A) At every stage of the case, the court shall consider the least restrictive placement for the juvenile and assess safety concerns that prevent either a trial home placement or the juvenile from being returned to or placed in the custody of the parent of the juvenile.

(B) The court shall detail the safety concerns in subdivision (c)(2)(A) of this section in its written order.

(C) Failure to complete a case plan is not a sufficient reason alone to deny the placement of the juvenile in the home of a parent of the juvenile.

(D) A trial home placement may be made with a parent of the juvenile or the person from whom custody of the juvenile was removed.

(3) At the end of the trial home placement:

(A) The court shall place custody of the juvenile with the parent of the juvenile or the person from whom custody of the juvenile was removed; or

(B) The department shall return the juvenile to a licensed or approved foster home, shelter, or facility or an exempt child welfare agency as defined in § 9-28-402.

(d) When a juvenile leaves the custody of the department and the court grants custody to the parent or another person, the department is no longer legal custodian of the juvenile, even if the juvenile division of circuit court retains jurisdiction.

9-35-331. Fifteenth-month review hearing.

(a) A hearing shall be held to determine whether the Department of Human Services shall file a petition to terminate parental rights if:

- (1) A juvenile has been in an out-of-home placement for fifteen (15) continuous months, excluding trial placements and time on runaway status; and
- (2) The goal at the permanency planning hearing was either reunification or Another Planned Permanent Living Arrangement (APPLA).

(b) The circuit court shall authorize the department to file a petition to terminate parental rights unless:

- (1)(A)(i) The child is being cared for by a relative or relatives;
  - (ii) Termination of parental rights is not in the best interest of the child;
  - (iii) The relative has made a long-term commitment to the child; and
  - (iv) The relative is willing to pursue adoption, guardianship, or permanent custody of the juvenile; or

- (B)(i) The child is being cared for by his or her parent who is in foster care; and
  - (ii) Termination of parental rights is not in the best interest of the child;

(2)(A) The department has documented in the case plan a compelling reason why filing a petition is not in the best interest of the child; and

(B) The court approves the compelling reason as documented in the case plan; or

(3) The department has not provided to the family of the juvenile, consistent with the time period in the case plan, the services the department deemed necessary for the safe return of the child to the child's home if reunification services were required to be made to the family.

(c) If the court determines the permanency goal to be adoption, the department shall file a petition to terminate parental rights no later than the fifteenth month of the child's entry into foster care.

(d) If the court finds that the juvenile should remain in an out-of-home placement, either long-term or otherwise, the juvenile's case shall be reviewed every six (6) months, with an annual permanency planning hearing.

(e) A written order shall be filed by the court or by a party or party's attorney as designated by the court and distributed to the parties within thirty (30) days of the date of the hearing or prior to the next hearing, whichever is sooner.

9-25-332. Review of termination of parental rights.

(a) After an order of termination of parental rights, the circuit court shall review the case following the termination hearing at least every six (6) months until permanency is achieved, and a permanency planning hearing shall be held each year following the initial permanency hearing until permanency is achieved for that juvenile.

(b) The court shall determine and shall include in its orders whether:

- (1) The case plan, services, and current placement meet the juvenile's special needs and best interest, with the juvenile's health, safety, and educational needs specifically addressed;

- (2) The Department of Human Services has made reasonable efforts to finalize a permanency plan for the juvenile; and
- (3) The case plan is moving toward an appropriate permanent placement for the juvenile.
- (c) In making its findings, the court shall consider the extent of the compliance of the department and the juvenile with the case plan and court orders to finalize the permanency plan.

(h) An order reinstating the parental rights of the parent who is the subject of a petition filed under this section restores all rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations of the parent as to the child, including without limitation custody, control, and support of the child.

(i) If the child is placed with a parent whose parental rights are reinstated under this section, the court shall not close the case until the child has resided with the parent for no less than six (6) months.

(1) Vacate or affect the validity of a previous order terminating the parental rights of the parent who is the subject of the petition; and

(2) Restore or impact the rights of a parent who is not the subject of a petition filed under this section.

(l) This section is retroactive and applies to a child who is under the jurisdiction of a court at the time of a hearing on a petition to terminate parental rights, regardless of the date on which

(B) The court shall not place preadjudicated juveniles in the custody of the department.

(f)(1) If the juvenile who is being detained under this section is also in the custody of the department pursuant to a family in need of services or dependency-neglect petition and the court does not keep the juvenile in detention, then any issues regarding placement of the juvenile shall be addressed only in the family in need of services or dependency-neglect case and shall not be an issue addressed, nor shall any orders be entered in the delinquency case regarding placement of the juvenile.

  - (2) The report shall contain among other information the age, sex, nativity, residence, education, mentality, habits, whether married or single, and employment and income and shall be continued so as to show the condition of the person during the term of his or her probation and the results of probation in the case.
  - (3) The report shall never be disclosed except as required by law or directed by the court.
- (c) The probation officer shall furnish to each person released on probation a written statement of the terms and conditions of probation and shall report to the court any violation or breach of the terms and conditions so imposed.

9-35-427. Proceedings concerning juveniles for whom paternity not established.

- (a) Absent orders of a circuit court or another court of competent jurisdiction to the contrary, the biological mother, whether adult or minor, of a juvenile for whom paternity has not been established is deemed to be the natural guardian of that juvenile and is entitled to the care, custody, and control of that juvenile.
- (b) The biological mother, the putative father, the juvenile himself or herself, or the Office of Child Support Enforcement may bring an action to establish paternity or support of a juvenile for whom paternity has not been established.
- (c)(1) If the juvenile is not born when the parties appear before the court, the court may hear evidence and issue temporary orders and findings pending the birth of the juvenile.
  - (2) If the final order is contrary to the temporary order, the court shall render judgment for the amount paid under the temporary order against the petitioner if the petitioner was the biological mother.
  - (3) If the mother dies before the final order is issued, the action may be revived in the name of the juvenile, and the mother's testimony at the temporary hearing may be introduced in the final hearing.
- (d)(1) Upon an adjudication by the court that the putative father is the father of the juvenile, the court shall follow the same guidelines, procedures, and requirements as established by the laws of this state applicable to child support orders and judgments entered upon divorce.
  - (2) The court may award court costs and attorney's fees.
- (e)(1) If paternity has been established in a court of competent jurisdiction, a father may petition the court in the county where the juvenile resides for custody of the juvenile.
  - (2) The court may award custody to a father who has had paternity established if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that:
    - (A) He is a fit parent to raise the juvenile;
    - (B) He has assumed his responsibilities toward the juvenile by providing care, supervision, protection, and financial support for the juvenile; and

(C) It is in the best interest of the juvenile to award custody to the father.

(f) At the request of either party in a paternity action, the trial court shall direct that the putative father, biological mother, and juvenile submit to one (1) or more blood tests or other scientific examinations or tests, including deoxyribonucleic acid typing, to:

(1) Determine whether or not the putative father can be excluded as being the father of the juvenile; and

(2) Establish the probability of paternity if the test does not exclude the putative father.

(g) The tests under subsection (f) of this section shall be made by a duly qualified physician or physicians, or by another duly qualified person or persons, not to exceed three (3), to be appointed by the court.

(h)(1) The results of the tests under subsection (f) of this section shall be receivable in evidence.

(2)(A)(i) A written report of the test results by the duly qualified expert performing the test, or by a duly qualified expert under whose supervision and direction the test and analysis have been performed, certified by an affidavit duly subscribed and sworn to by the expert before a notary public, may be introduced in evidence in illegitimacy actions without calling the expert as a witness.

(ii) If either party shall desire to question the expert, the party shall have the expert subpoenaed within a reasonable time before trial.

(B) If the results of the paternity tests establish a ninety-five percent (95%) or more probability of inclusion that the putative father is the biological father of the juvenile and after corroborating testimony of the mother in regard to access during the probable period of conception, this shall constitute a prima facie case of establishment of paternity and the burden of proof shall shift to the putative father to rebut the proof.

(3) The experts shall be subject to cross-examination by both parties after the court has caused them to disclose their findings.

(i) When the court orders the blood tests to be taken and one (1) of the parties refuses to submit to the test, that fact shall be disclosed upon the trial unless good cause is shown to the contrary.

(j) The costs of the tests and witness fees under this section shall be taxed by the court as other costs in the case.

(k) When it is relevant to the prosecution or the defense in a paternity action, blood tests that exclude third parties as the father of the juvenile shall be the same as set out in subsections (f) and (g) of this section.

(l) The refusal of a party to submit to a genetic or other ordered test is admissible at a hearing to determine paternity only as to the credibility of the party.

(m) If a male witness offers testimony indicating that his act of intercourse with the mother may have resulted in the conception of the juvenile, the court may require the witness to submit to genetic or other tests to determine whether he is the juvenile's father.

9-35-428. Appeals.

(a) All appeals from juvenile cases shall be made to the Supreme Court or to the Court of Appeals in the time and manner provided for appeals in the Arkansas Rules of Appellate Procedure.

(2) However, the evidence shall be admissible when proper in subsequent proceedings against the same juvenile under this subchapter.

9-35-430. Probation — Revocation.

(a)(1) After an adjudication of delinquency, the court may place a juvenile on probation. (2) The court shall notify the Division of Youth Services in its commitment order of the order of probation including the juvenile's compliance with the division's aftercare plan, if provided in the treatment plan.

(b) Any violation of a condition of probation may be reported to the prosecuting attorney, who may initiate a petition in the court for revocation of probation. A petition for revocation of probation shall contain specific factual allegations constituting each violation of a condition of probation.

(c) The petition alleging violation of a condition of probation and seeking revocation of probation shall be served upon the juvenile, his or her attorney, and his or her parent, guardian, or custodian.

(d) A revocation hearing shall be set within a reasonable time after the filing of the petition, or within fourteen (14) days if the juvenile has been detained as a result of the filing of the petition for revocation.

(e) If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the juvenile violated the terms and conditions of probation, the court may:

(1) Extend probation;

(2) Impose additional conditions of probation; or

(3) Make any disposition that could have been made at the time probation was imposed under § 9-35-423.

(f)(1) Nonpayment of restitution, fines, or court costs may constitute a violation of probation, unless the juvenile shows that his or her default was not attributable to a purposeful refusal to obey the sentence of the court or was not due to a failure on his or her part to make a good faith effort to obtain the funds required for payment.

(2) In determining whether to revoke probation, the court shall consider the juvenile's employment status, earning ability, financial resources, the willfulness of the juvenile's failure to pay, and any other special circumstances that may have a bearing on the juvenile's ability to pay.

(3) If the court determines that the default in payment of a fine, costs, or restitution is excusable under subdivision (f)(1) of this section, the court may enter an order allowing the juvenile additional time for payment, reducing the amount of each installment, or revoking the fine, costs, or restitution or unpaid portion thereof in whole or in part.
