Important Information Regarding
Arkansas Court Reporter Certification Orientation Requirements

Beginning January 1, 2027, the Arkansas Board of Certified Court Reporter Examiners will implement new orientation requirements for Arkansas Court Reporter Certification.

In addition to passing the required tests, candidates must complete the following:

• In-Person Orientation: Attend a one-day, in-person orientation session scheduled on the testing calendar.
• Student Career Launcher: Complete the Student Career Launcher program on the NCRA website. The modules must be completed with a reviewer. Access the program through the link: NCRA: Career Launcher Program for Students.

Please note that all Regulation 26 candidates are required to participate in orientation.
